

DEPARTMENT OF CARDIOTHORACIC SURGERY

WORKSHOP ON CARDIO-PULMONARY RESUSCITATION AND AUTOMATIC EXTERNAL DEFIBRILLATION

Department of Cardiothoracic Surgery in collaboration with Medical Education Department organized workshop on Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation and Automatic External Defibrillation on 17 & 18th July 2017 at 9.00am in Examination hall - II in second floor of preclinical block.

The Dean, Prof.S.Rajasekaran inaugurated the workshop, during the inaugural function welcomed the audience and students and highlighted the importance of this workshop. He also thanked INCOL association who had provided advance mannequins and also 2 senior most trainers Mr.Akash and Mr.Praveen.

The Dean also congratulated the Department of Cardiothoracic Surgery for organizing and conducting regular program for UGs, CRRIs, and PGs including Nursing students. He also stressed the importance that all lay persons who are applying for driving license should know the concept of CPR and also delivers it whenever necessary.

The Vice Principal Prof.Dr.Chandrasekar, appreciated the effort taken by Prof.Dr.G. Muthurangan and Dr.V.Arun. He also highlighted that such programs are essential for allied health science students. Post test was conducted at the end of program and prize was awarded to the toppers.

The Dean and the Vice Principal giving their talk in Workshop.

Students are practicing the technique and students are given awards at the end of post test.